

HEALTH FORM

HEALTH FORM IN THE CAMPUS OF RIMINI-ITALY

Health form for ERASMUS radiography students undertaking clinical placements in the Campus of Rimini. Students should prepare all certifications here in list below with a date not before than 3 months on the date of placement. All the tests must be sent to Prof. G. Santucci gioele.santucci@unibo.it one month before the arrival.

All the tests below are mandatory

Blood count -Formula	TSH SLR
GPT ALT	HBV - Reflex
GT range	HCV antibodies
Total cholesterol	HIV 1/2 antibody
HDL cholesterol	*Ab anti Rubella IgG
LDL cholesterol	*Ab anti measles IgG
triglycerides	*Varicella IgG Ab /H.zoster
Glucose (blood)	Eg urine. Chemical - physical
Creatinine	Test for tuberculosis: quantiferon
Total protein x result	Vaccination booklet
Electrophoresis prot. (blood)

*If the student has already had one of the following diseases in the past and has therefore not been vaccinated, the general practitioner must provide a certificate stating that the student has had the disease and is now immune.

According to the Euratom 230/95, 96/29/Euratom, 97/43/Euratom classification form by the radioprotection officer, if it is provided by your University.

All documents should be translated in English or in Italian and sent by e-mail to gioele.santucci@unibo.it before arriving on placement.