

FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Erasmus Radiography Group Student information

Institution Information

Lund university, Faculty of Medicine, Department of Health Sciences
Sölvegatan 19
223 62 Lund, Sweden

Website

Contact person

International coordinator:

Nadia Benabou

- Phone: +46 46 222 7113
- E-mail: nadia.benabou@med.lu.se

International coordinator of the Radiographer education:

Jenny Gårdling

- Phone: +46 46 222 1903
- E-mail: jenny.gardling@med.lu.se

Information

On Lund university website you can find relevant information about your exchange studies such as pre-arrival information, housing, student life, student organizations, student services etc. Click here

Some relevant information is highlighted below

LU Accommodation

Information about housing. Click here

Health declaration for clinical practice:

There are some requirements before arriving. For more information click here.

Travel information:

You travel to Lund by flight to Copenhagen airport in Denmark or to Malmö City Airport. A train station is located at Copenhagen airport. For more information click here.

Trains are available 24 hours from Copenhagen airport to Sweden and Lund. From Malmö city airport you can travel by bus to Lund. Tickets to trains/buses are available from ticket machines at stations. The easiest way is to buy a ticket through the Skånetrafiken app (in Swedish).

- Download app to buy tickets

Currency:

Swedish krona is the official currency.

For more information about cost of living click here.

Weather:

The weather varies a lot in the south part of Sweden with temperature from minus 5-10 degrees to plus 5-10 degrees in the winter. We recommend you bring warm clothes and shoes.

Lund:

Lund, located in the scenic Skåne region of southern Sweden, is a city that beautifully blends history with modernity. Known for its medieval charm and bustling student life, Lund offers an enriching experience for all. One of the city's most iconic landmarks is the Lund Cathedral, that dates back to the 12th century. Surrounding the cathedral, you'll find narrow cobblestone streets lined with historic buildings, charming cafes, and unique shops.

With its compact size, Lund is easy to explore on foot or by bike. For those seeking more adventure, nearby Malmö and Copenhagen, Denmark offers exciting urban experiences just a short train ride away.

City Official website

Lund University

Student life:

Student life in Lund is unforgettable. The city is alive with activities organized by the various student nations — social and cultural hubs offering events, affordable meals, and a chance to meet friends for life and immerse yourself in Swedish student traditions.

Student life

Lund as a student city