

Welcome to Lund University, Sweden

Contact information

International coordinator:

Caroline Morand caroline.morand@med.lu.se

Head of the Radiographer Programme:

Jenny Gårdling jenny.gardling@med.lu.se

University lecturer:

Bodil Andersson bodil-t.andersson@med.lu.se

Exchange curriculum

Radiography and Patient Care in neuroradiology

Here you can find the curriculum:

https://moodle.med.lu.se/pluginfile.php/145330/mod_resource/content/1/RSJA30-1.pdf

The course "Radiography and Patient care in neuroradiology" includes theory and clinical practice. Theory is 4 weeks and clinical practice 9 weeks; one week conventional, four weeks MRI and four weeks CT. The clinical practice is located at two different hospitals; Skåne University Hospital (SUS) in Lund and SUS in Malmö and takes place four days a week. One day a week you will have lectures, seminars or time to study on your own.

Overview:

Course weeks	Activity
Week 1-2	Meet course management Meet international coordinator MRSA screening Lectures Introduction week for exchange students Swedish language lessons
Week 3	Clinical placement: Conventional Seminar
Week 4-12	Clinical placement: MRI and CT Lectures Seminars Supervision: Case
Week 13	Examination: Case presentation
Total: 13 weeks

Information about exchange studies at Lund University

Here you can find more information about exchange studies at Lund University

<https://www.lunduniversity.lu.se/international-admissions/exchange-study-abroad/exchange-studies>

How to travel to Lund

Airport: Copenhagen Airport, Denmark

Train to Sweden: A train station is located at the Copenhagen airport. The trains are available 24 hours to Sweden and Lund

Department of Health Science Center (HSC)

Most of the lectures and seminars takes place at the Department of Health Science Center (HSC)

See map

Visiting address: Margaretavägen 1B, 222 40 Lund

Post address: Box 157, 221 00 Lund

Phone: +46 46-222 18 01 (Monday-Friday, 8am -16pm)

Fax: +46 46-222 18 08

How to get to HSC from the train/bus station in Lund

By bus:

- Take bus number 3, direction "Nöbbelöv".
- Get off at bus stop named "Margaretavägen"

By bicycle or walking:

- Take left and bike/walk straight forward on "Spolegatan" to "Kung Oscars väg"
- Turn right
- Take left in the circulation area
- Follow "Kävlingevägen" until "Baravägen" and turn right
- Health Sciences Center is on the left side about 100 meters